Who/What:

'Tis the season to give back! For over 50 years, Boys & Girls Clubs of Miami-Dade has been selling Christmas trees to help bring holiday cheer into South Florida homes and to create great futures for area youth. The tradition continues at the Hank Kline Club tree lot that will be open seven days a week, starting Monday, Nov. 22 until trees are sold out.

The trees, gorgeous Fraser firs, hand-selected by President Alex Rodriguez-Roig in North Carolina, stand 5-feet to 14-feet tall with a starting price of $65. Poinsettias are also available starting at $15.

Shoppers will have the opportunity to Sponsor-A-Child to help make a positive impact in the life of an area youth.

Proceeds from tree sales and Sponsor-A-Child will benefit Boys & Girls Clubs of Miami-Dade's many positive programs, including its after school programs, homework assistance, computer training, social skills, dance, arts and crafts, professional mentoring, and summer and athletic programs, for area youth who need them the most.
