Boys & Girls Clubs of Miami-Dade to Open its 2020 Christmas Tree Lot on Nov. 23

The Tree Lot Will be Open Seven Days a Week Until Trees are Sold Out

Who/What:

'Tis the season to give back! For almost 50 years, Boys & Girls Clubs of Miami-Dade has been selling Christmas trees and wreaths to help bring holiday cheer into South Florida homes and to create great futures for area youth. This year the tradition continues at the Hank Kline Club tree lot. The tree lot will be open seven days a week, starting Monday, Nov. 23 until trees are sold out.

The trees, gorgeous Fraser firs, hand-selected in North Carolina, stand 5-feet to 14-feet tall with a starting price of $65. Hand-decorated wooden reindeers and poinsettias are also available starting at $15.

Proceeds will benefit Boys & Girls Clubs of Miami-Dade's many positive programs, including its In-Person Virtual Learning Program, after school programs, homework assistance, computer training, social skills, dance, arts and crafts, professional mentoring, and summer and athletic programs, for area youth who need them the most.

Amid the COVID-19 pandemic, the Club is following all CDC guidelines including social distancing efforts and mandatory face masks for entry. The organization is monitoring updates from Miami-Dade County and public health officials, and will continue to respond based on their guidelines.
